

Respect for closing times, as well as arrivals and departures provided for in your contract

Dear Parents

Hereby, we would like to remind you that in order to continue to ensure a professional quality welcome, it is important to respect the scheduled arrival and departure times, according to your hosting contract, as well as the importance of respect. closing hours of our children's institution.

Indeed, your collaboration contributes enormously to the proper functioning of the services provided to your children.

In the morning the last possible arrival is 8:45 am.

The departure time before closing remains unchanged: at 6.20 p.m. at the latest

We would like to remind you that in the event of non-observance of closing times, we will be forced to terminate the contracts of the parents concerned.

In advance, we thank you for complying with the regulations and send you

Dear parents, our best regards.

The direction